The Band would like to thank:

Ava:

The Creator is awesome. Just to think he loves music and a sense of humor. All dues to Him. The Band. Having 5 brothers for a sister is not easy, but we preserved. That says it all. The Family...take out again tonight, home by 3 am... love you sooo much KY & Tee...The Fan family... You make it all worthwhile

Bill:

Many thanks to friends, fans, and family whose support for this project made all the difference. The BOOK is back!

John:

To my wife Kathy for all the years off support

Lee:

Thanks to "my angel Benette"

Edgar:

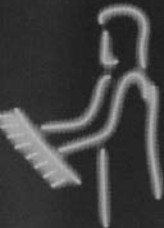

God, My wife Mary...TTF...our kids Kristen and Andrew for your love and support.
To Dave for all your hard work over the years. To the Dinosaur and our fans.

Dave:

My girlfriend and wife Winnie for being in my life; My children: Ryan, Conor, and Aubrey for being special gifts. Our fans who keep us alive; All the band for your 20 years of musical inspiration and friendship.

Special thanks:

Cookin' by The Book

Closing in on our 20th year together (5 original members and "7 year newcomer" Lee)! It's high time to capture the essence of Cookbook... A live performance... Here are the ingredients that make this band unique: An audience comprised of savvy music listeners, Funky Dancers, and Cookbook playing covers of the "Old School" R&B we all grew up playing and dancing to. Mix in a touch of jazz, spiced up with a couple of hot instrumentals, a few saucy originals thrown in and.....VOILA...you have Cookbook, live at the Syracuse Dinosaur Bar-B-Que. A funky recipe.

We're sure you'll find this music cool enough to heat things up at your next musical feast. Enjoy.

Dave Hanlon
